Seller shall submit the proposal promptly, but no later than three (3) months from the effective date of termination, unless extended in writing by Buyer upon written request of Seller within this three (3) month period. However, if Buyer determines that the facts justify it, a termination settlement proposal may be received and acted on after three (3) months or any extension. If Seller fails to submit the proposal within the time allowed, Buyer may determine, on the basis of information available, the amount, if any, due Seller because of the termination and shall pay the amount determined.
- E. Subject to paragraph D. above, Seller and Buyer may agree upon the whole or any part of the amount to be paid because of the termination. The amount may include a reasonable allowance for profit on work done. However, the agreed amount, whether under this paragraph E. or paragraph F. below, exclusive of costs shown in subparagraph F.(3) below, may not exceed the total Order price as reduced by:
 1. The amount of payments previously made; and
 2. The Order price of work not terminated. The Order shall be amended, and Seller paid the agreed amount. Paragraph F. below shall not limit, restrict, or affect the amount that may be agreed upon to be paid under this paragraph.

3. The reasonable costs of settlement of the work terminated, including:
 - a. Accounting, legal, clerical, and other expenses reasonably necessary for the preparation of termination settlement proposals and supporting data;
 - b. The termination and settlement of Subcontracts (excluding the amounts of such settlements); and
 - c. Storage, transportation, and other costs incurred, reasonably necessary for the preservation, protection, or disposition of the termination inventory.

- J. If the termination is partial, Seller may file a proposal with Buyer for an equitable adjustment of the price(s) of the continued portion of this Order. Buyer shall make any equitable adjustment agreed upon. Any proposal by Seller for an equitable adjustment under this clause shall be requested within 45 days from the effective date of termination unless extended in writing by Buyer.
- K. (1) Buyer may, under the terms and conditions it prescribes, make partial payments and payments against costs incurred by Seller for the terminated portion of this Order, if Buyer believes the total of these payments will not exceed the amount to which Seller will be entitled.
- (2) If the total payments exceed the amount finally determined to be due, Seller shall repay the excess to Buyer upon demand, together with interest computed at the rate established by the U.S. Secretary of the Treasury under 50 U.S.C. App. 1215(b)(2). Interest shall be computed for the period from the date the excess payment is received by Seller to the date the excess is repaid. Interest shall not be charged on any excess payment due to a reduction in Seller's termination settlement proposal because of retention or other disposition of termination inventory until ten (10) days after the date of the retention or disposition, or a later date determined by Buyer because of the circumstances.
- L. Unless otherwise provided in this Order, Seller shall maintain all records and documents relating to the terminated portion of this Order for three (3) years after final settlement. This includes all books and other evidence bearing on Seller's costs and expenses under this Order. Seller shall make these records and documents available to Buyer, at Seller's office, at all reasonable times, without any direct charge. If approved by Buyer, photographs, microphotographs, or other authentic reproductions may be maintained instead of original records and documents.

If Buyer terminates this Order in whole or in part, it may acquire, under the terms and in the manner Buyer considers appropriate, supplies or services similar to those terminated, and Seller will be liable to Buyer for any excess costs for those supplies or services. However, Seller shall continue the work not terminated. In addition, Buyer may rework or repair any Product in accordance with the Non-Conforming Goods clause herein, at Seller's cost.
- C. If the failure to perform is caused by an excusable delay, as described in the Excusable Delay clause herein, Seller shall not be liable for any excess costs of re-procurement.
- D. If the failure to perform is caused by the default of a subcontractor at any tier, and if the cause of the default is beyond the control of both Seller and subcontractor, and without the fault or negligence of either, Seller shall not be liable for any excess costs for failure to perform, unless the subcontracted supplies or services were obtainable from other sources in sufficient time for Seller to meet the required deliver schedule.
