Irrespective of the place of performance, this Order and any dispute arising under or in connection with it shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of New York, United States of America (USA), without regard to its conflicts of law principles. The Parties agree the provisions of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this Order.

13. DISPUTES

A. Amicable Negotiation. All disputes, differences, controversies, claims or questions arising in connection with, arising out of, occurring under, or related to, this Order and any subsequent amendments thereto, including, without limitation, the formation, validity, binding effect, interpretation, performance, breach or termination, as well as non-contractual claims (a "Dispute") shall be reduced to writing in a document to be sent to the other Party, requesting amicable negotiation (a "Negotiation Request"). The negotiation process hereunder shall be submitted to mutually compatible levels of management of the respective Parties to try and resolve the Dispute amicably and in good faith and the executives selected shall use their reasonable best efforts to meet and to find a mutually acceptable resolution to the Dispute.

B. Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute or any part thereof is not satisfactorily settled by negotiation within sixty (60) days (or within such further period of time as the Parties may have agreed in writing), any Party may file a request for arbitration (a "Notice of Arbitration") with ICDR, in which case the Dispute shall be referred to and finally determined by binding arbitration pursuant to ICDR's (International Centre For Dispute Resolution) International Arbitration Rules then in effect ("the Rules"), subject to the following provisions:

1. The Parties shall agree to the selection of one (1) or three (3) arbitrators, depending on the complexity of the case. Where a tribunal of three (3) arbitrators is to be selected (the "Arbitral Tribunal"), each Party shall appoint a person to serve as an arbitrator. The two Parties' appointed arbitrators shall then appoint the Chairperson.
2. If the Parties cannot jointly agree on the composition of the Arbitral Tribunal within thirty (30) days from the date of the Notice of Arbitration, ICDR shall appoint the Arbitral Tribunal in accordance with the Rules, appointing as many arbitrators and using such mechanisms to appoint them as it deems appropriate in accordance with the Rules, at its sole discretion.

In addition, Seller agrees to take such reasonable measures as may be required by Buyer to ensure the physical integrity and security of all shipments under this Order against the unauthorized introduction of harmful or dangerous materials, drugs, contraband, weapons or weapons of mass destruction or introduction of unauthorized personnel in transportation conveyances or containers. Such measures may include, but are not limited to, physical security of manufacturing, packing and shipping areas, restrictions on access of unauthorized personnel to such areas; personnel screening to the maximum limits of law or regulations in Seller's or manufacturer's country; and development, implementation and maintenance of procedures to protect the security and integrity of all shipments. Contact Buyer's Authorized Purchasing Representative for assistance in identifying transportation companies that are validated under the C-TPAT program. Information about C-TPAT can be found at www.cbp.gov.
